

NEW!

Do you like to tell stories from your life?
Do you have stories you've written and always wanted to share?
The Storyteller Circle is for you!

What to expect

- A warm, supportive, fun, non-judgemental atmosphere.
- The chance for people to tell their own stories and to hear others share theirs.
- Each session will have a topic or theme, given out ahead of time. Participants can come with a story to share on that topic, or can just come to listen.
- All ages and abilities welcome, no prior writing experience needed.
- Can be a standalone workshop or a series.
- Contact jenerationstories@gmail.com for schedule and pricing information

This workshop will be led by Jennifer Shulman. She has worked in research and writing for over 30 years and is the founder of Jeneration Stories, a company that helps people turn their personal stories into self-published books.
